above named minor, assume ultimate responsibility for the activity on my child's card and agree to be financially responsible in the case of lost or damaged items. Respecting the rights of parents to determine what content is appropriate for their families and themselves the library will provide full access to Adult, YA, Juvenile and Children's collections to all cardholders. This includes all print media, movies, audio formats, games and music. Approving my child's library material choices is my sole right and responsibility. In the event that this card is lost or stolen I will immediately inform the library. Failure to do so will result in my being liable for all materials and fines incurred on the missing card.
